New business

They will "throw the switch" to light up the holiday tree as well as the Park that evening. They were very pleased to be asked and will attend.

The Chairman announced that an attempt to contact the photographer John Kane for the Coe portrait project was made but he still must be in Italy. Another call will be made.

Old Business

In reference to the committee's request to encourage Mike Boe to complete his concept for finials for the two cupolas he designed for the carriage house, the Chairman had opportunity to engage in conversation with Mike Boe and he expressed an enthusiastic interest to continue with his initial original design for finials. This will be further discussed in 2018.
