Positive Performance

Narrative

On 3/5/24 at approximately 1312 hours Ofc. Gaudette was on patrol in the area of North Elm St. at Eagle St. when he observed a distraught elderly male party standing outside of his vehicle which was parked on Eagle St.

Ofc. Gaudette stopped to investigate and discovered that the male had been driving his wife home from the hospital when she began having a medical emergency while seated in the passenger seat of their vehicle. Ofc. Gaudette immediately began to provide aid while calling for supporting units to respond.

Trinity ambulance, along with Ofc. Mrazik responded to the scene to assist. It was determined that the female was having a stroke and required emergency medical treatment by a doctor as soon as possible.

Due to your attentiveness on patrol, and quick decision making; these members of our community were provided with crucial emergency care during a time of great duress.

Ofc. Gaudette, these actions are in keeping with the highest traditions of Law Enforcement. They reflect a distinct credit upon yourself, The Torrington Police Department, and the City of Torrington.

Thank you,
Sgt. Faulkner #311
