

A REGULAR MEETING of the City Council and Water Pollution Control Authority (WPCA) of the City of Torrington was held at the City Hall Auditorium on Monday, November 21, 2022. Present at the City Hall auditorium were Mayor Elinor Carbone, City Councilors Armand Maniccia, Drake Waldron, and Keri Hoehne. Also present at City Hall were Treasurer Dan Farley, and Building Committee Co-Chairs Ed Arum, and Mario Longobucco. Councilor David Oliver joined via Zoom. Also joining via Zoom was Corporation Counsel Victor Muschell. Councilors Anne Ruwet and Paul Cavagnero were absent.

Mayor Carbone called the meeting to order at 6:30 p.m. beginning with the Pledge of Allegiance.

Presentation of Certificates

Mayor Carbone presented Owen Quinn the Executive Director of the United Way of Northwest CT with a Certificate of Appreciation for his leadership, hard work, and commitment to managing the Cold Weather Overflow Shelter in Torrington for the last two years. She went on to say that Owen's energy, passion, and dedication to providing the highest level of service for our most vulnerable are greatly valued and appreciated, especially while dealing with the unforeseen challenges brought about by the Coronavirus Pandemic Crisis.

Owen Quinn Thanked the Mayor and the City for the award. He then took a moment to speak about the United Way and the impact that it has had on helping individuals in the community over the years.

Mayor Carbone presented Thomas Kandefer with the Good Deed Award, for keeping Torrington clean and beautiful. She explained that Tom has been an active member of the Torrington Trails Network and Torrington Recycling Committee and has participated in many Conservation Commission meetings and events. During the City's World Clean Up Day, held this September 17, 2022, Tom led the effort in filling a 20-yard dumpster with garbage from the Naugatuck River and city-owned conservation properties. Tom Kandefer Thanked the Mayor and the City for the recognition of his efforts. He went on the challenge all of the younger people in the City to volunteer to help keep the City beautiful.

Building Committee Co-Chair Ed Arum introduced Joe Toner the Executive Director of the CT State Building Trades Training Institute (BTTI). Mr. Toner said how they were recruiting and enrolling Torrington Residents who graduated, into the Construction Readiness Training Programs. He went on to say that the individuals tonight are being awarded a certificate of completion to be able to move onto the apprentice program in their chosen trade. Mr. Toner introduced Yolanda Rivera Director of BTTI and Ed Grabowski President of the Greater Hartford Building Trade Council to hand out the certificates.

The following individuals were awarded certificates:
