Pilot Program for Eye Recycle

On a motion by Councilor Ruwet, seconded by Councilor Maniccia, the Council voted unanimously to accept the recommendation of the MSW Recycling Coordinator and Public Works Director to enter a contract for a one-year pilot program with Eye Recycle of Waterbury, CT at no cost to the City. Public Works Director Ray Drew explained to Council that Mike Stallings, owner of Eye Recycle of Waterbury, CT, approached the City about giving residents a different option for redeeming their bottles, and cans. Mike Stallings gave an overview of the program, which is a redemption center, that offers curbside pick-up for residents. He went on to say that it is a 50/50 split with any redeemable items in Connecticut. Councilor Maniccia asked how it would look for individual homeowners in the City, Mr. Stallings let him know that the pickups would be scheduled out, and you would have to have your bags, which you would purchase for $0.50 a bag, out between the hours of 12 p.m. – 8 p.m., and that you would get paid in arrears in a month. Councilor Hoehne asked how many employees they currently had, Mr. Stallings told her that they have eight, but two more are starting next week. Councilor Hoehne asked if he was doing presentations for other Cities in the State, Mr. Stallings explained that he had done presentations in Waterbury, Naugatuck, and New Haven. He went on to say that Naugatuck is fully on board with the program and that Waterbury is currently piloting areas to see how the program goes. Councilor Hoehne asked how the City would get the information out to the targeted areas, Mayor Carbone let her know that with the targeted areas for the pilot they would do a direct mailing. Mr. Stallings let her know that on Eye Recycles end they would be promoting on social media. Councilor Cavagnero wanted to know if there have been any problems with poachers, Mr. Stallings let him know that there haven't been any issues at this point but assured him that the company will work with customers if an issue arises. Councilor Cavagnero also wanted to know if at curbside pickup the company would go through the bins or bags to determine what would be recyclable, Mr. Stallings told him that the company doesn't do that and that they provide instructions on how to bag the redeemable items. Public Works Director Ray Drew informed Council that if the Pilot areas were successful with the new program that there would be an option to expand to different targeted areas or even City wide faster than one year.

Business by Dept. Heads

On a motion by Councilor Waldron, seconded by Councilor Cavagnero, the Council voted unanimously to consider business by department heads.

City Clerk Carol Anderson reminded everyone to vote in the Primary coming up on Tuesday, August 9th, she also Thanked Lynn Florio for all her years of service in the City Clerk's office.

Corporation Counsel Victor Muschell addressed a letter that the Council had received regarding public displays of profanity and changing the blight ordinance to enforce such displays around the City. Atty. Muschell went on to say that the City's blight ordinance is created from a particular State Statute which is based on certain definitions of what is considered blight. Obscenities are not one of the blights that the City can take into account for an ordinance. He proceeded to say that with freedom of speech, there is no way to be able to regulate these displays around the City. Councilor Hoehne wanted to know if the City has any control over these displays because some are very close to elementary schools. Atty. Muschell said there is nothing that the City can do unless it is displayed on a public building. He spoke about the Supreme Court cases over the years regarding these types of displays. Councilor Cavagnero asked for clarification on a child having to turn his or her head to avoid looking at the signs, Atty. Muschell explained that there had been a couple of court cases where a bus was driving by a sign and the court said that for a child to turn their head to avoid the sign isn't sufficient to surpass someone's right to freedom of speech.

Business by Mayor & Members
