

Trails in Torrington

The map shows existing trails in Torrington: Burr Pond State Park trails connecting to trails in Sunnybrook State Park.

Future plans include expanding the trail system to Stillwater Pond State Park and towards downtown creating a network of trails and greenways for residents to enjoy!

Sue Grossman Still River Greenway Trail

Officially opened Saturday, May 16, 2009 to a warm crowd of over 50 people. (See pictures below)

A majority of the 3 mile trail is paved or prepared for paving due to be completed by the end of summer 2009. The trail begins in Winsted at Lansom Drive and goes south currently to North Road in Torrington. Along the route are convenience stores and small restaurants to enjoy.

Future plans include linking in Machuga Park and extending the trail further towards downtown.
