Dear Mr. Keneston,

Thank you for taking the time to write concerning the actions of Officer Kisiel regarding his interaction with your father Gordon. First and foremost, I hope that your father is doing well and that there are no significant issues with him.

I can't tell you how grateful I am to hear of the positive things that my officers do and that you took the time to write to me concerning this. My officers regularly assist members of our community in a positive and most helpful way. While I know that they do good work on a daily basis, I don't often hear about it until someone such as yourself takes the time to write to make me aware of the positive interactions that they have had with one of my officers. I can tell you that unfortunately, it is not that often I get letters of praise, especially in the current environment. Too many times people have a perceived negative interaction with the police. It is people such as yourself that really make a difference in keeping officers motivated and positive when they are recognized for their positive actions. All it sometimes takes, is a little note thanking them for their service.

I will be sure that Officer Kisiel be made aware of your note to me and will ensure that this be kept in his personal file. Off. Kisiel is a fine, young officer who has been doing an excellent job in assisting this community that he so proudly serves. He is a true asset to me and my department as well as the City of Torrington. Your note describing your interaction with him is a true testament to his dedication, commitment, and professionalism. And it does not surprise me.

Thank you once again for your time to write and advise me of your positive experience with Off. Kisiel. I am proud of him and how he represents the Torrington Police Department and our city.

Sincerely,

William R. Baldwin Jr.
