

HEARING PROCEDURES TO CONTEST VIOLATIONS IMPOSED UNDER THIS CODE

a) Unless otherwise provided by any other provision of this Code of Ordinances the following is established as the requirements for notice of fines, penalties, costs or fees due for any citation, order, or infraction issued for violation of provisions of this Code of Ordinances and the procedures for contested hearings thereon.

(b) The Mayor shall appoint, with the approval of the City council, one or more Citation Hearing officers, other than police officers, employees or persons who issue citations, orders, or infractions for violations of this Code of Ordinances, to conduct the hearings authorized by this section. Citation Hearing officer(s) shall serve a term of two (2) years or part thereof, which term shall commence from the date of approval by the City Council and shall end on December 31 of every even year. Such officer(s) may be compensated by the city with funds appropriated for this purpose as recommended by the Mayor and approved by the City Council.

(c) At any time within twelve months from the expiration of the final period for the uncontested payment of fines, penalties, costs or fees for any citation, order, or infraction issued under any provision of this Code of Ordinances the official issuing such citation, order or infraction shall send notice to the person subject thereto. Such notice shall inform the person, as defined in general statutes 7-148hh(5) as follows :

(1) Of the allegations against him/her and the amount of the fines, penalties, costs or fees due;

(2) that he/she may contest his/her liability before a hearing officer by delivering in person or by mail written notice to the department of the City which has issued the citation, order, or infraction within ten days of the date thereof;

(3) that if he/she does not demand such a hearing, an assessment and judgment shall be entered against him/her; and

(4) that such judgment may issue without further notice. For purposes of this section, notice shall be presumed to have been properly sent if such notice was mailed to such person's last-known address on file with the tax collector.

(d) If the person who is sent notice pursuant to subsection (c) of this section wishes to admit liability for any alleged violation, he/she may, without requesting a hearing, pay the full amount of the fines, penalties, costs or fees admitted to in person or by mail to an official designated by such municipality. Such payment shall be inadmissible in any proceeding, civil or criminal, to establish the conduct of such person or other person making the payment. Any person who does not deliver or mail written demand for a hearing within ten days of the date of the first notice provided for in subsection (c) of this section shall be deemed to have admitted liability, and the official who issued such citation, order or infraction shall certify such person's failure to respond to a hearing officer. The hearing officer shall thereupon enter and assess the fines, penalties, costs or fees provided for by the applicable ordinances and shall follow the procedures set forth in subsection (f) of this section.

(e) Any person who requests a hearing shall be given written notice of the date, time and place for the hearing. Such hearing shall be held not less than fifteen days nor more than thirty days from the date of the mailing of notice, provided the hearing officer shall grant upon good cause shown any reasonable request by any interested party for postponement or continuance. An original or certified copy of the initial notice of violation issued by the issuing official shall be filed and retained by the municipality, and shall be deemed to be a business record within the scope of section 52-180 of the general statutes and evidence of the facts contained therein. The presence of the issuing official shall be required at the hearing if such person so requests.

A person wishing to contest his/her liability shall appear at the hearing and may present evidence on his/her behalf. A designated municipal official, other than the hearing officer, may present evidence on behalf of the municipality. If such person fails to appear, the hearing officer may enter an assessment by default against him upon a finding of proper notice and liability under the applicable statutes or ordinances. The hearing officer may accept from such person copies of police reports, investigatory and citation reports, and other official documents by mail and may determine thereby that the appearance of such person is unnecessary. The hearing officer shall conduct the hearing in the order and form and with such methods of proof as he/she deems fair and appropriate. The rules regarding the admissibility of evidence shall not be strictly applied, but all testimony shall be given under oath or affirmation. The hearing officer shall announce his/her decision at the end of the hearing or any continuation thereof. If he/she determines that the person is not liable, he/she shall dismiss the matter and enter his/her determination in writing accordingly. If he/she determines that the person is liable for the violation, he/she shall forthwith enter and assess the fines, penalties, costs or fees against such person as provided by the applicable ordinances.

(f) If such assessment is not paid on the date of its entry, the hearing officer shall send by first class mail a notice of the assessment to the person found liable and shall file, not less than thirty days or more than twelve months after such mailing, a certified copy of the notice of assessment with the Clerk of the Superior Court with an entry fee of eight dollars. The certified copy of the notice of assessment shall constitute a record of assessment. Within such twelve-month period, assessments against the same person may be accrued and filed as one record of assessment. The clerk shall enter judgment, in the amount of such record of assessment and court costs of eight dollars, against such person in favor of the municipality. Notwithstanding any provision of the general statutes, the hearing officer's assessment, when so entered as a judgment, shall have the effect of a civil money judgment and a levy of execution on such judgment may issue without further notice to such person.

(g) A person against whom an assessment has been entered pursuant to this section is entitled to judicial review by way of appeal. An appeal shall be instituted within thirty days of the mailing of notice of such assessment by filing a petition to reopen the assessment with the Clerk of the Superior Court, together with an entry fee in an amount equal to the entry fee for a small claims case pursuant to general statute section 52-259, which shall entitle such person to a hearing in accordance with the rules of the judges of the Superior Court.

(h) The Superior Court shall be authorized to enforce the assessments and judgments provided for under this section.

§161-9. Criminal Violations and Penalties.

- A) The City of Torrington maintains the authority, in addition to § 161-7 of this code, to issue criminal citations to owners or non-owner occupants who violate § 161-5 (A) of the Torrington Code of Ordinances. The determination will be made by the Blight Enforcement Officer and will be dependent on the severity or persistence of the problem.
- B) Pursuant to General Statute §§ 7-148 (c) (7) (H) (xv) (a) and 7-148 (o), any person or entity who, after written notice and a reasonable opportunity to remediate blighted conditions as specified in the Torrington Code of Ordinances § 161-6 (E), willfully violates Torrington Code of Ordinances §161-5 (A), may be fined by the State of Connecticut not more than two hundred and fifty dollars for each day for which it can be shown the blighted conditions continued to exist after written notice to the owner or non-owner occupier, as provided in § 161-6 (E). This section is designated as a violation pursuant to General Statute § 53a-27.
 - i. Any person who is a new owner or non-owner occupier shall, upon request, be granted a thirty-day extension of the notice and opportunity to remediate, provided pursuant to § 161-6 (D), prior to the imposition of a fine or civil penalty; if the blight is remediated during said extension, the case shall be dismissed. For purposes of this section, “new owner” means any person or entity who has taken title to a property within thirty days of the notice, and “new occupant” means any person who has taken occupancy of a property within thirty days of the notice.

§ 161-10. Municipal Remediation.

- A) Based on Connecticut General Statutes § 49-73b, ~~municipalities are~~ the City is authorized to recover from the property owner the costs it incurs to remedy blight on a property. This includes expenses for inspecting, repairing, demolishing, maintaining, removing, or disposing of any property in order to remedy the blight.

- B) If property owner is unable to pay within sixty (60) days after the due date, the property is subject to a lien that will take precedence over any other encumbrance besides municipal tax assessments.
- i. The lien must be established, and the owner must be notified, no more than thirty (30) days after the work is completed.
 - ii. If the owner has an insurance policy on the property, any payout from the policy is subject to the established lien.

§ 161-11. Severability.

- A) In the event that any part or portion of this code is declared invalid for any reason, all the other provisions of this code shall remain in full force and effect.
- B) Nothing in this ordinance shall preclude any other enforcement agency from performing the duties to which they are responsible.
